THE CLUE

Creative Writing Activity

Detective: The Clue

An FBI agent is investigating a case which involves what you and your best friend did on the evening of Thanksgiving. The evening had started off innocently, but it somehow did not end as you had expected. You, your friend, and both families have been called to appear before an investigation board to answer questions. Write a script which might take place at this meeting.